

NEWS SUMMARY

JANUARY 2011

WSET ANNUAL AWARDS SUCCESS

There was double cause for Mentzendorff celebration at the annual WSET awards held in the ancient London Guildhall.

The annual Delamain Cognac 2-day study programme was won by Adam Wyatt-Jones of Milk & Honey (part of the Rushmore Group), pictured below receiving his award from the WSET's President Hugh Johnson and Mentzendorff Managing Director - Andrew Hawes.

And our own Lara Sills (Commercial Operations) passed the WSET's highest awards - The Diploma in Wines & Spirits, following the 2 year study course, with flying colours.

Well done Lara.

DOMAINE CHANSON ANNOUNCES THE RELEASE OF THE ACCLAIMED 2009 VINTAGE

Mentzendorff were delighted to launch the 2009 vintage from Domaine Chanson in an En Primeur tasting on 19th January.

Hosted by Gilles de Courcel at the Mentzendorff offices in London, highlights of the vintage were on show proving the merits of the beguiling 2009 vintage. With a combination of finesse and elegance 2009 is receiving great interest already from the trade and consumers alike.

Mentzendorff are offering these wines on an IBD basis closing on 28th February.

