LES COLLINES DE LAURE ROUGE

Jean-Luc Colombo
VINS COLOMBO

DETAILS OF PRODUCTION

"Les Collines de Laure" (The Hills of Laure) is a blend of grapes from Northern Rhone appellations, with 80% coming from young vines (15-year-old) in Cornas and the remainder from St Joseph and Crozes Hermitage. The wine is named after these hilly vineyard sites where Laure played as a child. The grapes are grown in granitic soil typical to the Northern Rhone Valley. The grapes are hand-harvested and 100% free run juice is used. Vinification occurs in stainless steel tanks before the wine is bottled after seven months with no oak used.

TASTING NOTES

A brilliant ruby colour. The nose displays a wide range of small ripe red fruits with spicy undertones. Palate: Round on the palate and full of freshness. Fine tannins make it a harmonious and balanced wine.

HOW TO SERVE

Excellent with cured meats, sausages or grilled pork tenderloin. To be drunk within 2 to 5 years. Serve slightly chilled to 15°C – 16°C
